Hello Brothers:

June 2010

It's hard to believe the year is flying by so fast! I was honored to attend last month's Grand Lodge Communication in Mt. Pleasant and cast our Lodge's vote of support for Worshipful Brother Blomquist's amendment allowing remission of dues for Active Duty military. The amendment was passed by a substantial majority and will enter into the Blue Book as Grand Lodge law.

CANCELLED: Trip to Michigan Masonic Library and Museum

Unfortunately we have to postpone the Masonic Museum trip. Our plan is to reschedule sometime in August. Anyone interested send an email to jessdavey@gmail.com or leave a message with your phone number at (810) 299-2151 and I will keep you updated as we make further plans

160th Anniversary Festive Board!

Saturday June 26th at 6pm will be our 160th Anniversary Festive Board. Praiseworthy dinner will be served and fine fellowship enjoyed. $15 per person, Formal Attire, Tuxedo or Business Suit. Brothers only, R.S.V.P today at (810) 299-2151, leave message or email jessdavey@gmail.com.

Congratulations Brothers

Well here we are, Grand Lodge Communication over for another year, Summer is just about on us in full force, be careful, stay safe, and have an enjoyable Summer.

I have not seen the final print for an amendment of blue book law authored by Worshipful Brother Gerald Blomquist, our BGP Representative regarding the remission of dues for a brother actively deployed and serving in the armed forces of our country, but I do feel that the change is long overdue.

Brothers, the next communication will be for the September Regular meeting, with the Temple Board meeting at 6:00 pm prior to the regular, any and all are welcome to attend and have questions answered.

Lodge will be awarding a number of 25 year, and 40 year awards at the June Regular, and our former Secretary, Ronald E. Grove PM will be receiving his 50 year and if nothing changes The Grand Master, and Grand Chaplain will be present for the evenings events.

Respectfully and Fraternally,

William New PM.
